Beginning & Ending in the Middle

"I am a seed-head.

When I die, I go to seed – my seeds fall and scatter.

Some sprout, some don't.

You are the seeds."

Is this an ending?

"Begin as you will continue"

What are we in the middle of?

Work of a
Will School

Begin as you will continue

Being
Becoming

Wake-Up: Our Lineages

1. As a seed, we don't come from nowhere. We're in the middle. Looking at yourself as a seed, what are the lineages in your life that brought you to this school and this developmental work? What schools did you choose to follow to “begin” here?
2. What was already growing in you when you arrived?
3. What is unique about how you have engaged this work? What have you freshly generated in your own life and beyond from the influences of this School?
4. What is the specific potential you see looking forward? Weaving your seed lineages with the lineages of this school, what fresh hybrids will you help emerge?
5. In which world- or cosmos-scale systems do you seek to actualize change? What systems' evolution do you serve?

Reflection Question:

What is the function of community in “continuing” as you began, and generating new thinking & direction in the world?

Being & Becoming in a Will School

It is beautiful to move out of only “doing things” and into “being” – we can progressively satisfy our needs and desires, making life comfortable and happy, and even improve the world around us for self and others. In a Will School, we work to shift Worlds – to “become” what we were not, and grow as vessels for meaningful change and transformation.

Number of “Laws” to
Which we are Subject

World 12

Subject only to universal laws. Wide aperture of Will allows individual essence to generate new patterns for society. Guiding systems to serve life’s evolution.

World 24

Our Will is accessible & courageous – but must be regenerated. Subject to a smaller number of higher-order laws; Will activated to engage & move systems!

World 48

Will begins to awaken, but is still bogged by energy drains. We seek to relate with others on a path, but the pull to “being” remains.

World 96

Will is overweighted by innumerable laws to which we are subject. We are asleep – mechanical automatons with no free will or choice – compulsive, habitual, guided by fear and self-limiting beliefs. But! There is potential to wake up.

Exercise

1. What would it look like for you to work at each level? Where are you called to grow your Will?
2. Make a plan to activate yourself on one of these levels. Where? What topics? With whom?
3. What instruments will you use to push yourself up the levels over time? What will develop your sprouting seed?

Final Reflections:

What is moving and maturing in you, seed?

You have been nourished by this School, what will you nourish with your life going forward?
